

The Udai Bagh, Udaipur

Udaipur

In Udaipur every stone, every lake, every temple and palace has a story to tell, after all, it is the capital of the erstwhile kingdom of Mewar, one of the oldest surviving dynasties in the world. Udaipur is a city where heroism meets romance, a city where rustic meets contemporary and a city in which three blue lakes shyly flow to meet their lover, the mountain ranges. Watching the colorful city reflected in the calm waters of the famous Pichola Lake is magical and it has inspired many a painters and poets who would have sighed as they sat at its edge, and wished the moment was eternal.

The Udai Bagh, Udaipur, is much more than a luxurious hotel; it is an experience of all those aspects that this city of lakes stands for: royalty, romance and yes, a robust past. The spacious elegant rooms (42 to choose from) are designed in the traditional heritage style. You will feel nothing less than a monarch, as you stand in your spacious private balcony and behold: either the picturesque Aravalli range or the perfectly manicured lush gardens. What's more, the hotel is located at a convenient distance from not only the airport but also the city centre – making sure the explorer within you comes out of the hiding!
